Orders from Department Headquarters

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE COLUMBIA
PORTLAND OREGON Nov 1 1867

[GENERAL ORDERS—NO 32]

I The Brevet Major General Commanding the Department, deems it proper that the following shall receive special mention

December 1st, 1866, Sergeant Thomas W Connor with a detachment of nineteen men, of Company I, 1st Cavalry, was sent out from Camp Watson to pursue a band of Indians who had stolen a pack train belonging to citizens

They overtook them the third day, charged them, killed fourteen Indians and captured five women and children, besides seventeen mules and eleven horses They also recovered the stolen pack train and returned to camp on the 5th of December, having marched 160 miles

October 7th, 1866 Brevet Lieutenant R S O Beirne 21 Infantry, with a mounted detachment of Company E 23d Infantry, left Camp Three Forks, Owyhee I T on a scout through the Malheur country. October 10th he attacked their camp killing two severely wounding three—who were carried off during the fight—and capturing one Indian, three squaws, four children thirty eight horses two mules, an ox, and a large amount of ammunition and camp equipage Our loss was two men wounded, one severely

January 3d, 1867 Brevet Major Gen Crook with Company F, 1st Cavalry under Brevet Major Perry while on a scout through the Malheur country came upon a band of forty Indians He immediately charged and routed the Indians capturing thirty prisoners and scattering the rest The number of killed and wounded could not be ascertained

On the 21st of January, with Company M, 1st Cavalry, under Brevet Major Hunt General Crook left Camp Lyon on a scout down the Owyhee river He surrounded a camp of the hostile Snakes on the 23th of January and attacked at once killing sixty and taking twenty seven prisoners and twelve horses Only two Indians and two squaws escaped During the engagement one citizen was killed and three soldiers wounded

January 6th, 1867 the detachment of Indian scouts under Interpreters Darragh and McKay made a attack upon the vicinity of Crooked river, killing twenty-six Indians, captured eight children, two mules, one horse, one side and a considerable quantity of ammunition Our casualties were one man severely wounded and two horses wounded

March 19th, 1867, Lieut. C. F Western, 14th Infantry with a detachment of seven men of Company "F," 8th Cavalry, left Camp Logan on a scout On the 28th of March he attacked an Indian camp, capturing three oxen and about two thousand pounds of jerked beef, which he destroyed With supplies giving out he was compelled to return to camp on the 2d of April On the 20th of April, with a detachment of thirteen men of the same company Lieut Western started out to punish a band of hostile Indians, who had been committing depredations near Canyon City He struck their trail April 24th, and followed it two days, when he found himself unable to proceed further with his pack train Leaving one man with the train and taking three days' rations, he pushed forward and discovered their camp on the morning of the 27th on the opposite side of Silvie's river. Leaving three men to hold the horses, the rest of the detachment, ten in number, waded across the river, the water being neck deep, and charged the camp, numbering between forty and fifty Indians—about twenty or twenty five of them being warriors After the fight only six dead Indians were found. A number of them are known to have been killed or severely wounded, but were carried off during the fight. A number of wounded were also destroyed in attempting to cross the river Lieutenant Western captured thirty two horses and all their camp equipage and supplies, including one and one-half tons of commissary which was destroyed

June 18th, 1867, Archie McIntosh, Chief Scout, with a detachment of fourteen Indian Scouts, attacked a camp of Snake Indians, near Stein's mountain, killed twelve Indians, wounded one and captured two

July 23th, 1867, Lieut G. A Goodale, Company "K," 23d Infantry, with a mounted detachment of fifty men, attacked a band of Snake Indians on the South fork of the Malheur river, killed six, wounded one and captured two Indians, besides three horses and one mule He lost one man during the engagement

July 27th, 1867, Brevet Major-General Geo. Crook with detachments of Companies "F," "M" and "H," 1st Cavalry while scouting between Camp C F Smith and Camp Harney attacked a band of Indians and killed and captured forty-six of them besides a number of horses

June 24th, 1867, Brevet Lieutenant Colonel E M Baker, with a detachment of Company "I," 1st Cavalry, started from Camp Watson on a scout against the Snake Indians in the Harney Lake country He succeeded in killing four and capturing twenty two Indians and two horses, and returned to camp July 24th having marched a distance of 700 miles, without the loss of a single horse

September 9th, 1867, Lieutenant J F Small, Company A 1st Cavalry with a detachment of fifty men, while scouting near Silver Lake, came upon and charged an Indian camp, killing twenty four and capturing fourteen Indians He lost one man killed and two wounded, besides one horse killed and seven wounded

October 3d, 1867, Lieutenant James Pike, 1st Cavalry, with a detachment of seven men of Company E, 8th Cavalry was sent out from Camp Logan, at his own request, to chastise a band of hostile Indians who had been committing depredations near the Camp

He came upon them on the morning of the 4th, and with reckless daring charged on their camp The Indians escaped through the low underbrush, and it was impossible to ascertain what losses they had sustained In destroying some old rifles found in the camp one of them exploded, lodging a ball in the left thigh of Lieutenant Pike, and inflicting a dangerous wound He was brought back to camp, and after lingering in great suffering, died on the morning of the 14th inst. Lieutenant Pike was a valuable officer, and one who had rendered very efficient service during the past war His loss is deeply regretted

September 26th, 1867, Brevet Major General Geo Crook, with Company H, 1st Cavalry, under Lieutenant Parnell, Company "D" 21d Infantry, under Lieutenant John Madigan 1st Cavalry, and Archie McIntosh, with his Boise Scouts, while scouting through Silvies Pitt river country, came upon a large band of hostile Indians, who were entrenched in forts made of stone, situated upon a high and almost inaccessible ledge of rocks on the South fork of Pitt river Lieutenant Parnell was ordered to ascend the bluff on the south and attack in connection with the Scouts, while Lieutenant Madigan was ordered to attack from the other side. In the charge Lieut Parnell lost two killed and three wounded by the first volley Darkness coming on, the troops were withdrawn and placed so as to prevent the escape of the Indians The next day just after daylight, a charge was made and the main forts carried under a perfect hail of bullets. The Indians disappeared in the crevices and almost impenetrable caverns in the rocks, and soon after a number re appeared at a considerable distance from the forts, having escaped by the subterranean passages leading from them Some twenty dead Indians were found and the rocks were crimsoned with the blood of many others A large number of the wounded had crawled away in the deep caverns and could not be found In the second day's charge Lieut Madigan 1st Cavalry, and two enlisted men were killed, and eight enlisted men and one citizen wounded During the night of the 27th the troops remained around the cave, but the Indians crawled through the rocks and underneath our men leaving their wounded and even some of their guns behind, so great was their demoralization

The conduct of both officers and men was gallant in the extreme and the victory a brilliant one, although purchased at so dear a price Lieut Madigan was a young officer of great promise and his loss is deeply lamented He fell at the head of his men while gallantly leading the charge

II The above are but a few of the many successful scouts which have been made by the troops in this Department during the past year, and the Brevet Major General Commanding wishes to express to the officers and men engaged therein for the energy and perseverance and in many cases for the gallantry displayed in the pursuit and destruction of hostile Indians

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF THE OWYHEE
FORT BOISE I T Oct 2d 1867

[GENERAL ORDER—NO 3]

For service against hostile Indians and protection to the several lines of travel the following will be observed by Commanders of Posts and Camps in this District on the return to their stations of companies now absent with Gen. Crook's command

I The section of country north and east of the Owyhee range of mountains embracing the valleys of the Snake, Boise Payette and Weiser river, west of a meridian line passing through Fort Boise will be scouted by the troops stationed at Fort Boise That in the vicinity of the North Middle and South Forks of the Owyhee Jordan Creek and the tributaries east of Baxter's and the southern and eastern slope of the Owyhee range by the troops stationed at Camp Three Forks of the Owyhee That of the valley of Cow Creek and Jordan's Creek from Baxter's to the Owyhee Ferry and west of the Owyhee river to its junction with the Snake by the troops stationed at Camp Lyon That between Boise Mountain and the Owyhee river by the troops stationed at Camp C F Smith

II The Indian Scouts with small detachments of troops selected for the service will be actively employed to keep the Officers Commanding informed as to the hostile bands of Indians are roving about the section of country assigned them, and as to the localities of their camps with this or other reliable information the Camps will be attacked promptly care being taken to conceal the movement of their ops by taking if practicable routes concealed from the Indians or by making night marches

III The following detachments will be detailed By the Commanding Officer Fort Boise One Non Commissioned and six privates (mounted) to take part at Carson's Ranch on Reynold's Creek, two to precede the stage through the canyon between Reynold's Creek and Snake River and returning with the stage going the opposite direction This detachment will also afford protection through the canyon to government teams or trains with government stores en route to Camp Lyon, Three Forks of Owyhee and C F Smith. Two detachments (mounted) one of six and the other of four privates both in charge of one Non Commissioned Officer the former to take post at or near Scott's on Burnt river two of the number to precede the stage through the canyon in the direction of the Express Ranch in the morning and returning with the stage in the evening, the latter to take post at Miller's Ranch two of the number to precede the stage to Old's Ferry in the morning and return with the stage in the evening By the Commanding Officer of Camp Lyon, One detachment of a non commissioned officer and five privates (mounted) to take post at Inskip's, patrolling the road between Baxter's and McWilliams or Sheep ranch giving particular attention to that part of the road west of Inskip's, and making their tours at such hours as will afford protection to the stages

By the Commanding Officer at Camp Three Forks of the Owyhee

One detachment of a non commissioned officer and three privates, (dismounted), at McWilliams' or Sheep Ranch

By the Commanding Officer Camp C F Smith One detachment of a non commissioned officer and four privates (mounted Infantry), to take post at the Owyhee ferry, two to precede the stage as escort to and from McWilliams' or Sheep Ranch

IV The detachments will be relieved monthly, except that at Owyhee ferry, which can be relieved by the party carrying the mail to and from Camp C F Smith, weekly or semi-weekly

V As these detachments are furnished for the protection of stage lines and stations the allowance of forage will be furnished and paid for by the A A Q M., of the several stations to which the detachments belong, and at the established rates for the Post or Camp

VI It is expected that the Stage Companies will furnish transportation for supplies necessary to subsist these several detachments and that there will be no expense incurred by the United States for forage or transportation while performing service for the detachment

VII The non commissioned officers will be held strictly accountable for the condition of the animals and arms in their charge, and that no other service be rendered at the stations than for the protection of travelers and security of stock.

VIII When expeditions are made into such parts of the country as is impracticable for mounted men, either from the nature of the ground or because of deep snow, Infantry will be detailed for the service

IX Every effort will be made to put the Cavalry horses and pack animals in condition for active service as early as the season will permit, and the animals of the commands will not be unnecessarily broken down by long or rapid marches unless upon the return of Indians or for the purpose of reaching some Indians where Indians are known to be In such cases no efforts will be spared to ensure success

X Care will be taken in making reports of the number of Indians killed reports of scouts and Indian allies should be received with caution, unless corroborated by other evidence—such as scalps usually taken by our Indian allies or the number left dead on the field By command of

The Scene of the Battle of Waterloo

Our last visit to Belgium has been to the field of Waterloo, which is two hours ride in the carriage from Brussels by a road built expressly for the thousands not perhaps millions who resort thither It is overarched by magnificent trees the whole distance and kept in magnificent repair The immediate battle field is a vast plain as is well known and for miles around in every direction it is equally level Here and there a village limits the horizon too far for any sign of life to be visible and in fact a change! in the fifty two years since that terrible day except that the little knolls and undulations which served as rallying points to the contending armies are now removed in order to form the great mound for the dead This altered feature for the whole land cried it with reference to military manœuvres than for ordinary observers The Duke of Wellington exclaimed when he visited it two years afterward, "They have spoiled my battle ground!" The 60 000 heroes who fell were gathered up and thrown into one mass here on the center of the field and over them was erected this pyramid of sand, 150 feet in height which we ascend by 326 granite steps where a granite lion stands up in an immense pedestal too high to be sealed From here we look a road in every direction and with a map can distinctly trace any movement made by all engaged The castle of Hugumont, near which the first charge was made, stands just as it was then half in ruins, and the villages which served for garrison during the preparations and for refuge to flying soldiers still remain as they were scarcely increased in half a century Waterloo is two and a half miles distant from the principal scene of conflict, and had no share in the drama yet it has given the name to the field and battle and is the only one often repeated by hurricanes or remembered by the tourist It was insignificant then and is so still, but it is harmonious and was perhaps chosen for this reason to designate the spot which would be pronounced through all time by the people of all nations and regarded with a common interest by every country in Europe The mound is covered by long gracefully waving grass enameled with wild flowers, and is a court no object in the midst of a great field towering alone At the base is a museum, containing all manner of curious things, picked up in the furrows the plows made during years afterwards formed into a collection by an English officer who was wounded on the spot There are coats of many and all colors swords, guns and horse shoes, cannon wheels and harness balls, bullets and buttons, and several coats of mail with them to, while we did not suppose were worn in those days Autographs of all the great Generals are shown upon letters and extracts from the dispatches they sent to Berlin, to Paris and London, with some numbers of the London Times and Monitor, containing the news of the victory for the allies, and defeat of the French two days after that events happened. There was a throng of visitors the day we were there, and all along the road guides appeared offering their services to repeat what we had learned by heart at school, and which a book and chart could recall and explain better than they. The principal thought which occupies every mind is, "Here the great man fell," and what a field ours in particular was, "When he ordered up the Guard, his last reserve, if he had advanced, all their head and fallen fighting bravely as they fought and fell, he would have died a glorious death Almost to a man they perished, and he was left alone to wander here and there that dismal night, feeling that he had received his death stroke and was yet alive The tempest was fearful all around him but it must have been more fearful in his soul, and before him in the future he could discern nothing but the blackness of darkness. It was only half a century ago that this great drama was brought to completion, and it was so soon forgotten that one of his own family planned an expedition more than once that he had near undertaken, for a moment it seemed to require, and with less pretext of success than his failure had been as signal and his as great. How long will princes profit by the lesson? We have no fear that the last of Napoleon among the crowned heads of Europe is as fixed to ruin the nephew as it was to ruin the uncle, only they take a different way. Yet they might have known, guided if he had not so signally warned by his own destruction. He is falling more slowly and from a throne which seems at first secure, but that he will before long lay down his life is believed, by many he has already rid all who were to be useful to him, and even as Emperor proves him without friends.—Foreign Correspondence of the Boston Independent.

Five-Twenties Payable in Gold.

(From the San Francisco Commercial Herald of Oct 26)

Parties into whose hands the following Circular may fall will perceive that the Government bonds are working strongly to depress the value of the five-twenties by declaring that the principal is payable in currency and not in gold. The 1862 bonds of the United States were made payable, which has led to the belief for purposes purely speculative. It is argued that when Government issued the five-twenties the object was to purchase munitions of war, provisions, clothing and other material for the army and navy. The bonds were issued in gold, and to render this acceptable a gold premium was attached to this class of paper, else the same would never be worth their face value to gratify the steady gold interest on this side of the water, being the loan market. It is also urged that this inducement was quite necessary to get parties interesting with Government for the use of gold, instead reserving these bonds, until they could realize on their gold, in some cases as high as forty per cent., and they point to the "shrinkage" in gold in proof of this view. From this it is claimed that Government has made enormous profits on the sale of its bonds, and then pay in gold, on currency, the full face value of the bonds which are actually worth only three quarters this value. Should these rates the investment on this class of paper would be equal to near eight per cent. per year, if six per cent drawn against gold is worth eight per year, and six per cent. currency is worth only six per cent. in gold, on the par value of the bonds. They contend that Government is entered into any such contract, and quote section 3 clause of the law which expressly declares that the interest shall be paid in gold and the principal in money This wording is said to have given a deal of quibbling but put forward as it is, it seems clear enough. That of the principal is payable in gold, is something also very clear from the fact that the word "coin" is used in reference to the principal and not to the interest. This view is strengthened by the fact that if this not say so by the principal in currency it would have said so And this into a determination to pay in coin with as much plausibility as the use of the word in reference to the principal is to the interest. By refer ring to the fifth section of the act authorizing the issue of five-twenty bonds, we find at a definite idea of what the Government did not dispute. We find that the bonds are payable in coin, which is not the principal payable in currency, which is not the special fund to be applied to the payment of the interest on the United States bonds, and to the purchase and payment of the principal of the five-twenty debt of the United States, to be applied each fiscal year after the first day of July, 1868, as said per centum to be set apart as a sinking fund, the interest of which is to be applied to the payment and payment of the public debt, as the Secretary of the Treasury shall from time to time direct. He, then, we find the exact meaning of the law in order to create a sinking fund in coin, and from the interest of that fund to pay the public debt. This view of the case is the one held by Mr. McCulloch, who has interpreted the law as requiring the payment of both interest and principal in coin, and will act in accordance with such interpretation The law makes the sinking fund to commence almost immediately after the first issue of the bonds, with a view to provide for their redemption at the earliest possible date, the Secretary of Treasury being authorized to buy them in five years, if within the power of the Government to do so. This endeavor to depreciate the value of United States bonds is but another of those gigantic efforts made by part of the press of capital. Finding no legitimate employment suitable to its volume it is now violent speculative convulsions, and it now spending its force upon the Government. All that the Government proposes it means to accomplish Every obligation it incurred will be paid in coin We have only to point out the present weight of taxation

The Betrayer s Fate

The party which Johnson has sacrificed his integrity to serve and which would have ended its existence ere this had not his treachery given it a new lease of life now tells the betrayer in plain speech that as it has got all the service out of him it can hope for, it will give him countenance no longer In return for his sacrifice of political honor for its advantage it slaps the betrayer in the face, and with this insult, closes its doors against him This is the just as well as the invariable reward of treachery All the leading organs of that party now flatly repudiate Johnson Those who a year ago were passing resolutions in his favor, loaded with the highest encomiums and adulatory to the last degree now join with one voice in expressions of contempt both for the man and his acts Since the recent elections Democratic journals have taken particular pains to advise him that their successes are not his triumphs and that he is to share none of the credit of the result. As a specimen of what they say on the subject, we quote the following from the New York World, one of the leading exponents of the Democratic sentiments of the country That paper, in noticing the congratulations which Johnson has been receiving on account of the recent elections, and his rejoicing thereat, tartly says

Inasmuch as President Johnson has no identification with the Democratic party, and as a false impression of that kind would be a drag on the reaction, it may not be amiss to place the subject in its true light. Mr Johnson has in no sense a Democratic President. Not being a Democrat, nor are we willing that with this great weight of unpopularity, he should be classed as such Democrats might as easily think to improve his social standing by living with somebody's repudiated wife, as for the Democratic party to expect any advantage from adopting in the last days of this unsuccessful administration, a fettered President, elected by their enemies and popular with nobody.

Such is the retribution which even handed justice always brings upon the betrayer. The false and faithless never can acquire the respect of those whom they sell themselves to serve Johnson finds that the contempt of all parties is the reward of his despicable treachery

Spirit of the State Press.

The editor of the Umatilla Press, after an absence of several months, is again seated in the sanctum firing paper bullets at his "Radical" foes. His principal accusation against them this week is a repetition of the tolerably well known fact that taxes are higher now than they were before the Democratic rebellion Stamps are objectionable to the editor of the Press, and the "image and superscription" on them are especially odious. "The faces of Dantons, Robespierres, and Haynaus are fastened upon every material article of consumption." Perhaps Col Dow's indignation could be softened by the sight of a Confederate note bearing the image of President Davis or Secretary Benjamin He speaks of "the revile and traitors of '76" with great unction, intending, of course, to insinuate that the Southern rebels are deserving of equal respect and admiration But this has long been a Democratic habit, and we mention it only to show that the Press is not thoroughly Democratic as ever That paper also thinks that within the last few years there has been a fearful decline in "private morals, public purity and Christian virtues" Only to think how inexpressibly ludicrous it is for the party whose last official acts were signalized by the operations of Floyd, Cobb and Thompson, to be trying to play the role of a moral party

The Lafayette Courier manifests an equal solicitude about the state of public morals. It in quires:

Has dissent and honor, and virtue and manhood fled the breasts of every one affiliating with the Republican party? If it is true, it is a grievous fault; and grievously will our nation answer it. There is a point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and that, in this case, will have arrived when the lovers of liberty are cut off that the tyrant's ebullitions cannot be broken.

This is so much like Sample that we are satisfied he would have reasonable ground for prosecuting the Courier for violation of his copyright

The Foreign Liberal argues equal suffrage in the most vigorous manner We have no disposition to quarrel with it on this account but when we find it saying that it will raise its voice against "foolish fanaticism" wherever it sees it lurking,"—meaning thereby impartial suffrage,—we cannot help remembering that no other Republican paper in Oregon has ever gone so far in the advocacy of this "foolish fanaticism" as the Foreign went some months ago Such at least is our recollection its Douglas county readers may remember the facts.

The Corvallis Gazette is a temperance paper, and may be pardoned a little extravagant rhetoric when discoursing on its special topic. It thus appeals to the Good Templars

Are you from your lethargy, and in the name of God and suffering humanity go forth to battle, with PROHIBITION inscribed upon your banners, until the last grog shop is closed and the last wreck of humanity is saved from a drunkard's hell.

Intemperance is undoubtedly one of the greatest of evils but perhaps the Gazette will learn sometime that it can no more be cured by prohibitory legislation than the "eight hour rule" can be enforced by legislative enactments or true piety promoted by laws enforcing the observance of the forms of religion

The Sentinel says that the first duty of Congress at the opening of the approaching session should be the impeachment of the President.

The Albany Journal in noticing the uproar which the Copperhead press is keeping up in regard to negro suffrage in the South, as if they expected to reverse the status of the blacks, says

The Reconstruction act has settled the question of franchise and State organization there beyond the power of Congress to recall if so inclined—or rather, will be so completed in a few weeks The Southern Confederacy must reorganize before any thing can be effected for the Democracy in that line Their sometimes favorite institution the Supreme Court, stands in the way of any future Copperhead rampage

The Enterprise has an article urging a separate Supreme Court for Oregon In its arguments on the subject it seems to have overlooked the fact that the Constitution (Art VII, Sec 10) requires that the population of the State shall be 200,000 before a separate Supreme Court can be created Our population cannot now reach half that number However, the Enterprise presents some considerations on the subject which are worthy of attention We quote a paragraph

The greatest objection to our present system of judicature is found in the press of business, and want of time with the individual members of the court Each Judge is required to hold Circuit Court from one to three times a year in each county of his circuit, and this occupies the greater portion of his time Hence, when the Supreme Court is held with the usual calendar of from thirty to fifty cases Judges have to continue a portion, or hurry through in order to meet the demands of their respective circuits To continue a portion of the cases, will not help the matter for they will have no more time or a less number of cases at the next term therefore the business must be dispatched This prevents the court from giving the cases that justice and a correct application of the law require It is unjust alike to the court and to litigants and calls loudly for a remedy

Rev Henry Ward Beecher returned to his congregation September 22d, at Plymouth Church after an absence of about six weeks The house was packed in every part while hundreds went away unable to gain admittance Mr Beecher remarked that his malady (catarrh) would not permit him to preach in the evening and that next month would complete his twentieth year with Plymouth Church

THE STEAMER "RAINIER" AND THE COWLITZ RIVER.—The little steamer Rainier, Capt. Kerns, arrived here from the Cowlitz river, about 1 A. M. yesterday. The object of this trip is to procure here the necessary material for repairing and furnishing her, and she will leave again for the Cowlitz river in a day or two. Capt. Kerns, it will be remembered, last Saturday from Freport, in case if she boat could get up to the Cowlitz Landing on the first low stage of water. He found a good many snags in the way and was delayed some by the difficulty of getting them in the swift current. During the trip he found a place where to build a pile of snags and drift, to run the boat aground in very shoal water. Saturday he left Monday morning when they succeeded in getting her off without any further detention than that sort. Capt. Kerns says, had he cleared out the snags, as he did above, he could have run this place without grounding. On Monday, he reached the old Cowlitz Landing and found about 2 miles and a half higher up. The only stoppage he was compelled to make was at a rapids where the current was not less than twelve miles per hour. Here the boat's hands had to go ashore and cut fir wood, as the wood on board would not raise steam in the boiler and keep it up to make head against the current. With the fir wood, however, she was kept up to 100 pounds, at which point she boat went over the rapids easily. In returning no difficulty was experienced at all. This trial trip proves the feasibility of navigating the Cowlitz at its lowest stage of water. The people of the upper Cowlitz, the Captain says, were delighted with the advent of the Rainier at the landing.

SALT LAKE WOOLEN GOODS.—We find the following in the San Francisco Times of the 25th ult.; "There are on exhibition at the Merchants' Exchange three samples of that Salt Lake "Valley Tan" woolen goods, from the manufactory of Brigham, or "President Young," as he is commonly designated, with the retail prices thereto. The first sample is of heavy blue beaver cloth of a coarse quality, and not highly finished, for which $3 is charged at retail. The second is a substantial flannel of "mixture," or "stars of rose" (fine, at $2 75, and the last, a coarse grey outcast of the roughest description, for which $2 50 is charged. As compared with the product of the Mission, Pioneer, or Oregon mills, these fabrics are 100 per cent. higher in price and 50 per cent. poorer in quality, and with invoices at our communication, either by railroad or steamer, via the Colorado river, we ought to be able to furnish the people of the Territories with much better goods than they now get, at half the price, always providing that we have a fair and free competition, no percentage being given in favor of the productions of the Prophet's mills."

THE RECENT FRESHET.—In consequence of the rain, the track at the Riverside course was heavy yesterday, but the first two races advertised, came off notwithstanding, and were contested with considerable spirit. The first race was a mile trotting heat for a purse of $100 contested by Acker's Lady Vanilee and Shirley's Jim, won by the former in 15:49. The second race was for a purse of $100 and entrance of $10 each, mile heats, 2 best in 3. Ladd entered Attilla; H. Welch entered Hawley. Attilla won the 1st heat in 2:58; Hawley, the 2d in 2:59; Attilla, the 3d in 2:55; Hawley, the 4th in 2:57, and the 5th in 2:45; Hawley's face and purse. Both had, I what to heavy sulkeys over a very heavy track and drawing 215 pounds each. The average time of trots was therefore very fair, for that class of trotters. A team race advertised, was postponed on account of the rain and the heavy condition of the track.

FOR RIVER ITEMS.—We learn that a mass meeting of the citizens of Vancouver was called for last evening, to nominate candidates for Mayor, Auditor, Recorder, Marshal, Treasurer, and Councilmen for the city. The call was made by "many citizens" and so far as we could learn the meeting was intended to have no particular political complexion. The election will take place on Monday, the 4th inst.—The Hook and Ladder Fire Co. and Engine Co. No. 2, last evening, took possession of their new engine house provided at the expense of the city. It is a large and commodious building, occupied by both companies, with a large meeting room attached, and is well furnished. The Fire Department of Vancouver seems to be getting into good shape, as regards comfort, appearance and effectiveness.

BOISE CREEK.—Our readers will remember an account published two or three days ago of the collision of the Dean Richmond and the Vanderbilt, on the Hudson river, in which the former was sunk. Among other freight on the Dean Richmond had on board 500 sacks of wheat, enough probably for one batch for New York. One of our provision dealers, yesterday, to whom one of the barrels, put a quart in his shop. "suppose 500 tons of flour to be lost by a collision on the Willamette or Columbia river, what would Portland do for—for the next six years?" We knew what the man was up to, but we couldn't give him any satisfaction; we didn't know.

KOOSTAZIE CONVICTED.—Mr. Stiizel informed us last evening, having just come down from Oregon City, that the jury in the case of the State vs. Henri Kersting, indicted for the murder of O. H. Rejcke, found a verdict of "guilty of murder in the second degree." The court will pass sentence this morning. The law provides that the punishment shall be confinement in the penitentiary for life. Kersting is represented to have evinced a good deal of feeling when the verdict was announced, and to have said he would have preferred that the jury find him guilty of murder in the first degree or acquit him.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION.—Yesterday was the 350th anniversary of the day when the great reformator Luther nailed the Ninety-five Theses to the door of Wittenberg and burned the Pope's bull. Since that time, all protestants have celebrated the day as their day of independence. This year is peculiarly known as the Jubilee year of the Lutheran church, being their semi-Centennial year. We learn that in observance of the anniversary occasion, the Rev. A. Myers of the Fourth st. church, will deliver a discourse in the Congregational church, next Sunday evening.

AN INSANE COLORED WOMAN.—Mr. Thos. H. Reynolds, Deputy Sheriff of Marion county, arrived last evening by the P. T. Co's steamers from Salem, having in charge Mrs. Polly Holmes, a colored woman of Salem, familiarly known as "Aunt Polly Holmes," ordered to be placed in the Insane Asylum. She has heretofore at different times manifested symptoms of temporary insanity, but of late, the malady seems to have assumed a permanent character. Notwithstanding the lateness of the hour at which the boat arrived, Mr. Reynolds delivered his charge to the keepers of the asylum, last evening.

MACHINERY FOR CREDIT MINES.—Messrs. Knapp & Burrell, principal owners in the Credit mines opposite Astoria, received by the Sierra Nevada the engine and machinery for use at the mine. The engine is of 50-horse power. The company expects to get the machinery in operation in about sixty days. Working the machinery at its ordinary capacity, they will be able to turn out about 800 barrels of cement per week.

SETTLEMENT OF LAND CLAIMS IN OREGON.—The New York Herald of Oct. 21st, says: "The Commissioners of the General Land Office have prepared, and will transmit in a few days thirty-nine patents for ancient settlement claims, covering over thirteen thousand acres in Oregon and Washington Territories. The patents will be sent to Roseburg, Oregon City and Vancouver."

TREASURE RECEIPT.—The treasure received yesterday, by Wells, Fargo & Co., per steamer Hunt, from the Upper Columbia, amounted to $52,000.

BOAT FOR SALEM.—Upon the arrival of the Alert at Oregon City, to-morrow, a boat will be dispatched from the boats for Salem and intermediate landings.

THE "SIERRA NEVADA'S" FREIGHT.—The steamship Sierra Nevada brought up over 700 tons of freight, mostly for Portland houses.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The case of the State vs. Mary Carr and Nicholas Robinson, larceny, was the only case before the Recorder yesterday. The defendants were charged with stealing two gold watches and chains and $30 in coin, the property of J. F. Stark. The evidence disclosed the fact that a larceny had been committed but there was nothing to prove that either of the defendants had any connection with the commission of the crime and they were accordingly discharged.

THE ERROR IN 923 IRON.—By a mis-understanding between us and our informant, we yesterday morning made two errors in the item about the arrival in the river of the schooner Wm. L. Merry. We called her the Wm. L. Harris, and said she was freighted with merchandise; she is not a freighter at all, but belongs to the Government fleet.

COLLECTION DAY.—Yesterday was one of those awful days that swing around the circle once a month with the most terrible regularity—collection day. We heard a few of the bill-stickers don't they stick bills under people's noses?) complain of finding, many scarce; but the majority of them represented the task of easy on the score of cash.

More Indian Atrocities.

The Owyhee Avalanche of the 26th contains the following:

William Black, of the firm of Black Bros., residing in the town of Oro, was shot and fatally wounded by Indians on Thursday evening about seven o'clock. He died yesterday morning. It is astonishing with what audacity the "noble red man" perpetrated the bloody act. At the time, Mr. Black had just stepped out of his door with a candle in his hand, and was walking round the corner of his house, intending to go down into the cellar from an outside entrance. Another house is situated about 40 feet distant. The Indians were between the two houses, and shot two arrows at Mr. Black, one of which produced a fearful wound in his breast, near the heart, causing his death. The funeral will take place to-day. The succeeding tracks in the morning showed that there were five of the murderers in town and several of the mountains near by. Signal fires are seen almost every night on the mountains, at a short distance from town.

The Railroad Stage, from Idaho City was fired into by Indians yesterday morning about two o'clock. It occurred about fifteen miles from Silver near Cottonwood Station. Only the driver and Mr. Brooks, from the Sheep Ranch, were on board. One of the horses was shot, ran a few yards and dropped down dead. The boys fired several shots at their assailants, who, deeming it too hot, ran away. The driver and Mr. Brooks received no harm. They cut the dead horse loose, put out the lamps and drove the three horses to the station. It was undoubtedly the same band of Indians who have been committing depredations hereabouts for several days.

Barman Bros. will open to-day a large invoice of Overcoats. Prices from $5 to $40.

VARIETY GOODS.—Mr. W. B. Norman, of the variety store at the corner of Washington and First streets, has just returned from San Francisco with an immense stock of toys for the Christmas holidays, or any other days; decorations for Christmas trees, and everything in that line. He also has a large stock of the best selected cigars freshly imported from New York, that ever came to this city. It would be useless to attempt an enumeration of Norman's goods; we must content ourself by saying that his stock is one of the best and of the greatest variety in assortment, in the city—any or all of which can be got at retail or wholesale, at less prices by per quality than ever offered in this city.

The Proprietor of the LAFAYETTE RESTAURANT takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public in general, that from this date, and during the oyster season, he will keep his establishment open at night until 2 o'clock A. M., and will serve Oysters and Game in every style.

Has Returned to Portland, and

Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE; the nature of his improvement consists in fluing the entire concave surface with fine gold. It makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate adults of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two-and-a-half years, and the superiorness of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

EXCITEMENT IN AN EXPRESS OFFICE—DISCOVERY OF A PAIR OF SNAKES.—The Toronto Globe says

"For the last three months a box lay in the American Express Office in this city until yesterday. Since the Fourth of July last this box remained until called for. For some time past strange noises had been heard in the vicinity of the box with the unknown contents and the night watchman's slumbers had frequently been disturbed. Yesterday the box emitted a peculiar odor, and a clerk was commissioned to ascertain the [illegible]. When opening the securely nailed top out jumped two well grown rattlesnakes, one about five and the other seven feet long. The shorter reptile although lying in the box for three months, was in a healthy condition and in full possession of its faculties, for its first impulse was to raise its venomous fangs at its deliverers. The other exhibited serious infirmity, for one-half of the body was in a bad state of decomposition. The astonishment of the officials at this unusual sight gave way to feeling of security, when the porter of the establishment dispatched the larger but less animated reptile by a well directed blow on the head. The other required more stringent measures, and decapitation was resorted to before life became extinct. The snakes were booked from Great Bend, Ind., and were evidently intended for some itinerant showman in this locality."

A COSTLY UNDERTAKING.—According to the English papers received by the China, the expedition to Abyssinia will be a costly undertaking. The army to be sent out by England is small—only ten thousand men—but the outfit and the difficulties of transportation run up the bill of expenses to an appalling amount. As for instance, as large a fleet of transports is required to convey the troops from India to Abyssinia. The naval resources of the Bombay station are exhausted and sixteen ships are to be sent out from England. But this is said to be but a fraction of the number which it will be necessary to equip. Ten thousand men cannot be landed in Abyssinia, twenty thousand attendants and [illegible] have to be taken to look after the wants of sick and wounded of war are to be transported, and when the landing is effected, in November, this force must prepare for three hundred miles of toil and travel through African jungle. The Times says: "Less than half the distance on the west coast has proved too much for us before now." The Times adds: "It may be interesting, though it will not be agreeable, to [illegible] the cost of an Abyssinian war with that of similar [illegible] in New Zealand, Assam, China or Japan." The commander of the expedition is [illegible] and one of the [illegible] who will have command in the Sikh war.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Post Office at [illegible] for the week ending [illegible] I must call for [illegible] and requesting the date of the list and pay for it. [illegible] ONE CENT each, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used, and we have never known a single case of disaffection, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon.

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. HENLEY: Dear Sir—I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife. She had been afflicted with a severe cough for several weeks which had assumed a dangerous nature, for which many physicians had been trying without any material benefit and all there medicine failed to give her relief. Without relief was got from the above, in fact [illegible]. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr. Wetherell of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam, all other remedies having failed I concluded to try it, and I spare you all two bottles. Strangers to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and that, a thing she had not done for four or five weeks before. By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked. Its effect was truly miraculous, as the case had effectually [illegible]; hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I with say magical effect, is not more in use. My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house.

Vancouver, March 1, 1867 H COCHRAN

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill July 15 1867

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with the sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians of the Willamette, and have spent a forty dollars, got cured, stopping all the physicians accordingly became to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great many with those here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and feeling that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after taking six bottles I can joyfully record I am [illegible] ten pounds within six weeks and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,

WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold. I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house in case a child should eat the croup for which it is a sure remedy as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my two ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.

Yours truly,
SOPHIA M HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Patent Medicines for sale. But Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives that satisfaction the Royal Balsam does as is proved by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction.

BELL & PARKER
Druggists Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir—I had the Asthma for the last four years so bad that it came near choking me to death. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam which I several afflicted with the same disease has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week, and strange to say I have not experienced anything like one, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured; anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case for a smaller attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with it the same disease.

Yours truly,
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morrill.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—I think it but just to say that those few lines should be made known to the public for there is no use burning so many different [illegible] and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I relied much with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years. I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time. I relied much of the best physicians in the Atlantic States, and on the coast all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and really thought there was no relief for me in this world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam, and I had a most remarkable effect on me and I can talk as loud as anybody my wife and friends do know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they could realize of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it. I think it is a [illegible] to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial.

I remain yours truly

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!

THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND August 10 1867

I was at Mr. Wagner's store, Saturday August 10th and saw that I was affected with RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT in his case concluded to try it on my wrist which has been spraining for some time. I found relief inside FIVE MINUTES from its application and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to who ever calls on me.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND August 10th 1867

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor formed on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which I prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment and to my surprise it removed the lump the Liniment and to my surprise it removed the lump in less than one hour, so much as the pain as the other cheek was very fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.

PORTLAND August 12th 1867

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them.

Rheumatism Cured!

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah—ss

I, JEREMIAH BROCK, BEING DULY SWORN, SAY that I am fifty three years of age, that I reside in Yamhill County State of Oregon. I came to Portland on business on horseback from my home this morning. When I left home I could scarcely walk or stand on my feet, from Rheumatism, which has afflicted me for the last eight years. I was standing in Wilson & Stebbin's on First street, in this city, when I heard Mr Rennick's office to say that he would take out the Rheumatism in any case in twenty minutes. Rennick offered to bet $100 that he could do it. I went to Mr Rennick's house and he applied the Liniment to my leg, and in twenty minutes my leg felt sound and limber, and as well as ever.
